NEW TAX MAY GIVE STATE $1,500,000.

Big Revenue Expected to Come in From Corporations Under the New Law.

The clerks in the office of the tax commissioner at Hartford are busy on the preliminary work for the collection of the income tax on corporations in this state. The tax is levied by the general assembly at the last session.

When it was proposed and under discussion before the committee on finance it was suggested that the tax would yield a revenue of about $900,000. It is now expected that the revenue will be about $1,500,000 for this year if, indeed, it will not be nearer $2,000,000. The excess over the estimated revenue will be due largely to the profits from the manufacture of munitions which were not expected when the measure was passed by the legislature.

The tax will be paid by over 6,000 corporations. This number includes foreign corporations, which are doing business in this state. The tax commissioner will receive a return from each corporation.

DENIES INJUNCTION IN AUCTION CASE

Judge Waller Gives Decision on Auction at Kneeland Chapman Farm at North Stonington.

Judge C. B. Waller of the common pleas court rendered his decision on Wednesday in the matter of an application that was argued before him here last Monday. The judge denied the injunction which was asked by John Wilkinson to prevent the holding of an auction sale on Jan. 6 of the home farm of the late Kneeland Chapman in North Stonington. As the injunction is denied the sale will now go ahead today to which the postponement was made.

The case presented some very novel points in that John Wilkinson, who was a bidder at a former sale, sought to recover the property, claiming that his bid entitled him to possession.

In February, 1915, Kneeland Chapman died, leaving the farm and other real estate, and Martin O. Chapman was named as executor. In October of the same year the executor advertised the property for sale at public auction on Dec. 9, 1915, on the premises.

On that day there were a number of people present and the bidding was started by a bid of $600, when John Wilkinson raised the bid to $700, and the auctioneer, G. A. Pendleton, was looking for a larger bid, which he failed to get, the sale was announced as continued for two weeks.

Mr. Wilkinson has filed a bill of complaint, claiming that the property was legally struck off to him and that he is ready to pay the money asked and asking the title to the property be vested in him and that the executor be restrained from selling.

The matter presented some very novel questions in regard to auctions and the rights of bidders at public sales. Augustine T. L. Ledwith represented Mr. Wilkinson, and E. E. Perkins of this city appeared for the estate.

The boys manifested unfeigned interest in the exhibition, which was finely carried out.

The Blue Sox added another victory to their ever-increasing record on Wednesday evening when they defeated the Giants in the grand slam game of the meeting of the Ladies' Health and Recreation club. IS YOUR COMB FULL OF FALLEN HAIR?

What to Do When Hair Comes Out.

Loose hairs in your comb and brush is Nature's way of waving a red flag in your face to tell you that your hair and scalp are losing vitality and that it is time you did something for them. Do it—disregard the warning. A little attention now may mean long, thick, luxuriant hair for you for years to come. Little further neglect and thin, dry, dull, lifeless brittle hair and finally baldness may result. To vitalize the scalp till it tingles with vibrant energy—make every hair on your head healthy—get a package of Parisian Sage from Lee & Osgood or any good druggist in town and rub a little right into your scalp with the finger tips.

Parisian Sage acts directly on the entire cell life of the hair—from root to tip—helping healthy growth and stimulating a beautiful glossy texture and glorious luxuriance. Notice how quickly your hair starts coming out to brush and comb—how it is easier to handle and dress and how all signs of itching or dandruff quickly disappear. It is not expensive.

SCHOONERS ON NEW LONDON HARBOR ROCKS.

Parting of Wheel Rope Cause of Accident—Both Gotten Off.

Two large schooners, the Hartney W. of Farrborough, Nova Scotia and the Winnieganee of Philadelphia, Pa., went on the rocks near the New London lighthouse within a half hour early Wednesday morning seriously damaging the Hartney W. The parting of the wheel rope of the Hartney W. was the cause of the accident to both vessels.

Loaded with piling, bound from Farrborough to New York, under the command of Capt. William E. Wasson, the Hartney W. entered harbor at 3 o'clock yesterday morning. When the lighthouse the wheel rope of a schooner parted and before repairs could be made the boat crashed bow foremost on the rocks.

About a half hour later the schooner Winnieganee, bound for New York with a cargo of smoked herring, entered the harbor and seeing the Hartney W. on the rocks the pilot of the schooner was swinging out into the stream, not knowing that she was on the rocks. The Hartney was showing no light. The Winnieganee attempted to swerve out of the supposed course of the Hartney W. and in so doing she crashed onto the rocks. Both vessels remained where they struck until daylight.

A call was sent to the T. A. Scott Co., and in the early dawn a wrecking fleet was sent to the assistance of the stranded schooners. Towing lines to the schooners tug T. A. Scott, Jr., pulled the boats off the rocks into the stream. It was then found that the Hartney W. was leaking badly. The schooner was leaking so badly it was necessary to tow her to the Scott Co. wharf where repairs will be made. The Winnieganee went in to the stream but was unable to leave yesterday morning to get away, bound west.

The fact that there was very little sea running probably saved an extensive loss.

WANTED TO BUY OLD HARTFORD CITY HALL

$10 a Week Clerk Is Committed to Norwich State Hospital.

Joseph G. Shulman, of 35 Elmer street, Hartford, was committed to the Norwich State hospital on application of his brothers, by Judge L. P. Waldo Marvin in the Hartford probate court Wednesday, after hearing medical testimony.

The attorney for young Shulman made it clear that he did not oppose the application for the commitment, other than to ascertain whether it was advisable that it be to a state or a private institution.

The young man recently attained considerable publicity by calling at the Hartford mayor's office and seeking an option to purchase the old city hall property for $1,000,000 while he secured backing from J. Pierpont Morgan to obtain the money. Shulman's plans called for the erection of a mammoth business and hotel building, covering the entire site, at a cost of $2,000,000 more. It appeared in court that Shulman drew a salary of $10 a week from the dry goods business in which his brothers are interested. He seemed to be considerably interested in the court proceedings and laughed when his older brother inadvertently elevated his left hand when about to be sworn. The brothers informed the court that the value of Shulman's interest was about $1200.

The young man requested, after the hearing, that he be made clear that he was going to the institution voluntarily, to allow him time to work out some of his plans.
